

Tau Te Mauri / Breath Of Peace ... to settle the mauri of the people of the earth, to breathe peace into the world.

It's unusual in a country of so few people to have so many international peacemakers. This is the story of eight peace people of Aotearoa New Zealand.

JACK ROGERS MARY WOODWARD GEORGE ARMSTRONG PAULINE TANGIORA BUNNY MCDIARMID NICKY HAGER MOANA COLE KATE DEWES

aihe (dolphins), small boats, and surfboards sailing out to face huge nuclear warships

WAIATA AROHA YATES-SMITH
TAONGA PUORO RICHARD NUNNS

tobora (whales) crossing the Pacific, peace people crossing America, banging up B52s with a hammer

“An inspiration. There is no more important battle than the one for peace.”

Gaylene Preston, FILM-MAKER, NZ

kotuku (white heron) flying the coast people declaring small towns and cities nuclear free far out to sea toroa (albatross) and small boats sailing in midwinter into the nuclear fallout zone at Moruroa

“The tohora (whale) carries ancient knowledge, wisdom & understanding. The aihe (dolphins) are navigators - they guide the whales.”

Rev. Maurice Manawaroa Gray, NZ

RUNNING TIME: 72 minutes

©2005 WickCandle Film. All Rights Reserved. PO Box 8390, Christchurch, New Zealand.
www.wickeandle.co.nz, Fax 64-3-3329192, NEW ZEALAND
DVD / VHS - NZ$20 plus postage, payable to WickCandle Film